AP Art History Application

Name: _____ Current Grade Level: 10 11

This course is an on-campus independent study online course.

Course Description: AP Art History

AP Art History is an introductory college-level art history course. Students cultivate their understanding of art history through analyzing works of art and placing them in historical context as they explore concepts like culture and cultural interactions, theories and interpretations of art, the impact of materials, processes, and techniques on art and art making, and understanding purpose and audience in art historical analysis.

This class will use a variety of techniques for instruction. In the technology environment students will focus on large scale technologically enhanced projects that include a variety of visual media presentation and portfolios. The faculty will also use the best practices method to apply multiple intelligences and learning styles to the class when needed. Students are mentored throughout the class as they are kept responsible for staying on schedule and chronologically doing assigned work. Other forms of assessment include large scale writing in varied forms, discussions, journal writing, interactive quizzes, and tests. Comprehensive tests including the midterm and final will be given through Proctor U, an online test credibility and proctoring service.

Return this application to your counselor no later than Friday, March 18, 2022.
