Bakersfield College Dual Enrollment ANTHB4- Introduction to Linguistic Anthropology

Name : _____

Current Grade Level: 10 11

The ANTHB4 class is a college level course that is transferable to both UC and CSU and satisfies the General Education Social and Behavioral Sciences requirement. The grade earned in this class will be posted on your college transcript and will be used to determine college admission and financial aid.

Course description: This introductory course serves as a foundation for understanding language from an anthropological perspective, addressing such core questions as how, what, when, where, why and with whom we communicate. This course surveys three core areas in linguistic anthropology: structural linguistics; historical linguistics: including the biological basis for language; and socio-cultural linguistics and issues of language conservation and loss.
